

Being used like an animal.

The underlying problem isn't treatment standards — it's the belief that animals are ours to use.

She's not a milk machine. She's someone's mother, someone's daughter, stall and they use her as a piece of property. They'll take away all of her children. At 6, they'll kill her even though she'd naturally live to be 20.

She needs your help.

Reforming the system will not end the system.

Changing minds and changing the law.
